Voluntary A-Link Contribution (ALITC):

Several of you are likely aware of the mentorship program connecting an incoming Naval Academy class with the class 50 years senior. “Another Link in the Chain” (ALITC) will provide The Great Class of 1973 the opportunity to connect with the future Great Class of 2023. The program is managed by the Alumni Association. Our first official engagement will be on their I-Day in 2019 and officially ends when the final member of the Class graduates and is commissioned in 2023. In between these years will be several scheduled events for us to engage with the Class of ‘23. Our spouses will also be invited participate in some of these. During these engagements, it will be our turn to demonstrate our commitment to service, to share our experiences in the Fleet and the Corps, to emphasize timeless principles and values which have guided us, and to emphasize the respect and concern we maintain for each other and our Alma Mater over time.

Our ALITC sponsorship does not come without cost. As a Class, we will be expected to share expenses for such things as the I-Day Welcome aboard Picnic for families, Honor Coins, Ensign/2nd Lieutenant bars at graduation. Help us meet those costs with a contribution of $50 as part of your registration today! (Please note that A-Link contributions are NOT tax deductible charitable donations.)

Memorabilia:

Class memorabilia is only available through online order. There will be no "goodie bags" handed out at the reunion. The Class of 1973 Ship's Store has been set up and is available to accept orders. For the first time, you do not have to attend the reunion to place orders. An early bird campaign is underway until May 15. The purpose of the early bird campaign is to make merchandise available now, you will not have to wait until the reunion to receive your purchases. Merchandise will be shipped directly to your home. Also, if you are not planning to attend the reunion this is a great time to buy class memorabilia for use during the summer months. After the early bird campaign, the store will reopen for orders but will close down in late July to ensure merchandise is delivered before the reunion.
