

Frederick William Sexton, 70, passed away Friday, May 7, 2021 in Albuquerque, New Mexico, after a long illness. He leaves behind his wife of 43 years, Debra Jean Sexton, his 3 daughters, Anna Linvill, Aubrey Jackson, and Amy Sexton, 2 sons-in-law, 4 grandchildren, 5 siblings, and numerous nephews and nieces. Fred was a loving son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. The fifth of 8 children born to William and Marie Fuchs Sexton, he was a faithful Christian, a respected intellectual, and a passionate devotee of art, music, and nature. A Navy veteran and graduate of The University of Arkansas College of Engineering, he worked for more than 30 years at Sandia National Laboratories in Albuquerque, New Mexico. His intelligence, kindness, and generosity of spirit have left an indelible mark on all who knew him. Please join us, Saturday, May 29, 2021 at 10:00 am, at City Church of Albuquerque, 5300 2nd Street NW, for a Memorial Service honoring his memory. Published in Albuquerque Journal on May 16, 2021.
