

Raoul Bryant Conway

Dr. Raoul Bryant Conway, 51, of Sullivans Island, entered into eternal rest on April 24, 2003. He was born on November 2, 1951 in Charleston, SC, son of Elizabeth Cole Conway and the late John Condon Conway. Dr. Conway is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Paggi Conway; two sons, David P. Conway, University of Colorado at Boulder, and Matthew R. Conway, College of Charleston; one sister, Ruthie Conway Smythe and her husband David; two brothers, John C. Conway Jr. and his wife Carol, and Patrick F. Conway and his wife Robin of La Selva, Ca; one aunt, Elizabeth Conway Lawler of Vero Beach, Fl, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, loved ones and friends. Dr. Conway, local dentist, was a graduate of Bishop England High School, the US Naval Academy, class of 1973, and the MUSC College of Dentistry, class of 1982. He was past president of the Charleston Dental Society and gave generously of his time to crisis ministries, and people in need. He was a great provider who lived life to the fullest and never let small things get him down. His life touched so many lives like ripples across the waters of life. While in the U.S. Navy LT. Conway served with distinction aboard the USS San Diego (AFS-6) a Combat Stores Ship. During his tour as the Engineering Officer and Emergency Safety Officer, he made 5 deployments to the Mediterranean in support of 6th Fleet operations. His second tour of duty was with the Beachmasters Unit which worked together with the Marines to practice amphibious landings. During this tour he made two Gitmo cruises. The relatives and friends of Raoul and Betsy Conway, and their sons are invited to attend the Celebration of Raoul's life will be 12 Noon today, April 26, 2003 at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist 120 Broad St. Charleston. This gentle dentist will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by his family, friends, staff and patients. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Dr. Conway to Crisis Ministries, 573 Meeting St., Charleston, SC 29403, or Coastal Crisis Chaplaincy, PO Box 21833, Charleston, SC 29413. The family will receive friends after the service at Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce Building, 81 Mary Street, Charleston, SC.
